The ultimate hotel base for a leisurely shopping break in the capital this spring, The Marylebone is only a five-minute walk from both Oxford Street and Bond Street. The hotel, which is part of the luxury family-owned Doyle Collection, hits you with style and sophistication as soon as you enter. Have an eye for designer living? You'll love its well-planned décor, embracing cosmopolitan design and culture, with the public spaces being a winning celebration of contemporary art and furnishings. The perfect backdrop to a couple of days being spoiled rotten!

Looking for even more luxury? Let us suggest the Terrace Suites (there are three in total). The suites feature private terraces with retractable roofs, plus spectacular views of the iconic London skyline. The heated terrace is fully furnished with a large TV and comfortable seating – ideal for sitting back with a cocktail in hand whilst taking in the sights and sounds of the city. Or better still, you can watch the sun rise over the Shard by requesting breakfast here on the terrace. What's more, each of the suites enjoys marble bathrooms with heated floors, a Nespresso coffee machine, 100% cotton, crisp white bed linen, bathrobes and slippers... What more could you ask for?

The Marylebone village is famous for its culinary delights, but we can certainly recommend a visit to the hotel's 108 Brasserie for an evening meal. The restaurant is open seven days a week, serving breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea and dinner. With a passion for seasonal cuisine made using the finest ingredients, from grass-fed British beef to artisan cheeses, the chefs source only the best fresh produce from a number of highly respected local suppliers such as Aubrey Allen and La Fromagerie. Be tempted by the 108 hamburger or the traditional fish and chips! Dietary request? Not a problem. The hotel caters courteously for the health-conscious traveller with free-from menus, plus juices, shakes and smoothies.

With exclusive access to the Third Space gym, wellness area, spa and 18m swimming pool, after a busy day's shopping, why not make the most of the hotel's excellent spa and fitness facilities? With a range of complimentary fitness classes for all levels and interests, and a wonderful menu of health and beauty treatments, just take your pick!

Delivering on style and grandeur, but backing it up with a feel of comfort and cosiness, be sure to make the stunning Marylebone Hotel your home-from-home on your next trip to London. Uniting unique interiors and opulent soft furnishings, together with helpful, friendly staff and a warm and relaxed vibe, you simply won't want to leave!
